REGULATIONS OF OLSZTYN FAMILY MILE (HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO AS: EVENT")

ORGANIZATOR

The organizer of the event is Sport Evolution Group Sp. z o.o., located at 12/23 Jana Kochanowskiego Street, 01-864 Warsaw, registered in the National Court Register under the number 0000779253, with the registration court: District Court for the capital city of Warsaw, XIII Economic Department of the National Court Register, NIP (Tax Identification Number): 1231431002, REGON (National Business Registry Number): 382960037, correspondence address: Falencka 1B, 05-090 Raszyn (hereinafter referred to as the "organizer").

I. DATE AND PLACE

1. The event will take place on October 3, 2026, in Olsztyn at 20:00.

II. COURSE.

1. Course length: 1609 m.
2. The detailed race route will be posted on the website www.olsztynhalf.pl (hereinafter referred to as the "event website"). The Organizer reserves the right to change the route and its length. Such a change does not constitute grounds for requesting a refund of the entry fee or any compensation, provided that the change is made for important organizational or safety reasons.
3. Aside from the Organizer, authorized persons, and public services, no individuals without a race number are allowed on the course. Those violating this rule may be removed from the course by appropriate services.
4. Electronic time measurement checkpoints will be located along the course. Skipping a checkpoint, as well as running on the sidewalk, grass, or any part of the road not designated as the race course, may result in disqualification.

III. SAFETY

1. In the interest of the safety of athletes, volunteers, and organizers during the event, all participants and spectators must adhere to the current epidemic guidelines available on the website www.gov.pl (if applicable).
2. Persons under quarantine, under epidemiological supervision, or exhibiting symptoms of infection (fever, cough, shortness of breath) are prohibited from attending the event.

3. The athletes declare awareness of the level of risk associated with being in a crowded place during the event, including the risks of viral infection.
4. The athlete declares that they will not make any claims against the organizer in the event of any infection acquired during the event.
5. The athlete participates solely under the responsibility of a parent or legal guardian. The parent or legal guardian assumes the associated risk, acknowledging that participation in the Event involves physical exertion and carries inherent risks, including the possibility of accidents, bodily injuries, and physical harm (including death), as well as property damage and losses. By allowing participation, they voluntarily accept these risks. The above does not exclude the Organizer's liability as stipulated by mandatory legal regulations. .
6. The organizer provides personal accident insurance (NNW) to participants who have been correctly verified at the race office. Each athlete will be covered by insurance for personal accident protection, covering bodily injury or health impairment resulting in permanent disability or death of the insured, occurring during the insurer's liability period in the territory of the Republic of Poland. The premium is paid by the Policyholder, i.e., the Organizer.
7. Athletes are obliged to strictly follow the instructions of the Organizers, traffic management services, including the Police, Municipal Guard, judges, and other services securing the race route.
8. Medical service decisions regarding the continuation of the race are final and indisputable. The medical transport of an athlete results in disqualification.
9. If an athlete decides to withdraw from the race at any point in the event, they are obligated to report this fact to the judges or the organizer. Failure to report this fact to the judges or the organizer may result in the athlete being disqualified and suspended from participating in events organized by Sport Evolution Group Sp. z o.o. for 2 years.

IV. PARTICIPATION

1. Entire families are invited to take part in the Event, regardless of age. Registration must be completed by a parent or legal guardian through the entry form. Only children who are under the care of a parent or legal guardian during the race may take part in the Event (both the parent/legal guardian and the child must be registered).
2. Every Athelte must be verified at the event office. Details regarding participant verification can be found in Section VIII.
3. For safety reasons, the following are prohibited:
  - a. Bringing items onto the course that could pose a threat to other participants.
  - b. Participating in attire that covers the face and prevents identification.
  - c. Participating with animals.

- d. Participating with strollers or child carriers.
4. The Organizer may prohibit the use of items not specified in Section IV, Point 3, if they pose a risk to the safety of athletes, volunteers, or the Organizer.
5. Only verified participants with a race number may be on the course. Running with a companion is not allowed, except as specified in this regulation.
6. Costs related to the entry fee, accommodations, transportation, and meals are the responsibility of the participant.
7. Each athlete is required to display their race number on the front of their chest. Failure to comply may result in disqualification.

XI. KLASYFIKACJA I WYNIKI

1. There will be no time measurement or classification in the Event. The race is a recreational running activity for children and their guardians.

XII. PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

1. The personal data of athletes is administered by Sport Evolution Group Sp. z o.o., Jana Kochanowskiego 12/23, 01-864 Warsaw, contact regarding personal data at: daneosobowe@sportevolution.pl.
2. The personal data of athletes will be processed for the purpose of organizing and conducting the event, determining the winner, awarding, issuing, receiving, and settling the prize, as well as other activities related to the conducted business.
3. To perform time measurement, create results, send information about the start number, and the achieved result, athlete data will be provided to the company responsible for timekeeping during the event.
4. The athlete has the right to access and correct their data. Providing personal data and giving consent to their processing is voluntary but necessary to achieve the above-mentioned purposes. Failure to provide data or lack of consent to their processing prevents participation in the competition. Please note that the given consent can be revoked at any time; however, revocation does not affect the lawfulness of data processing prior to withdrawal.
5. The processing of athlete data, in connection with participation in the event, also includes the publication of the athlete's name, year of birth, club affiliation along with the name of the place of residence—in any way the project will be published.
6. All information about participants obtained by the organizer and included in the registration form will be electronically stored and used in accordance with applicable legal regulations.
7. The organizer reserves the right to conduct interviews with each participant, take photos and film them for advertising, promotional, internet, radio-television broadcast, and other commercial purposes.
8. The organizer reserves the right to use free of charge worldwide all photos, film materials, interviews, and sound recordings depicting competition participants. They may be used by the organizer by placing them on CD-ROMs, DVDs, portable devices such as pendrives or external drives, cloud services, in catalogs, and media, on websites, in newspapers, and exhibitions, as well as for promotional and advertising purposes related to the organizer's activities.

9. The data retention period is as follows:
  - a. For data processed for the purpose of pursuing potential legal claims—until the claim is time-barred or the proceedings related to pursuing claims are concluded.
  - b. For data processed to document conducted activities and inform about them—no more than 5 years from the date of the documented event, unless the data is processed for archival purposes in the public interest.
  - c. For data processed to ensure the security of networks and IT systems—no more than 5 years from the date of registration.
  - d. For data processed based on the participant's consent—until the consent is withdrawn.
10. To withdraw consent for the processing of personal data, the participant should complete the form available at <https://slotmarket.pl/document/polityka-prywatnosci> and send it to contact@slotmarket.pl.

XIII. COMPLAINTS

1. Complaints related to event matters should be submitted in writing along with a justification to the organizer's correspondence address, marked "Olsztyn Family Mile - Complaint," within 7 days from the date of the event—either in person, by registered mail (postmark date determines), or to the email address: biuro@olsztynhalf.pl with the subject “Olsztyn Family Mile – Complaint”.
2. Complaints submitted after the deadline specified in point 1 of Chapter XIII will not be considered.
3. The organizer will review complaints about the event within 14 days from the date of their receipt.
4. The Organizer's decision on complaints about the event will be final.
5. The above does not limit the Consumer's rights to pursue claims based on the absolutely applicable provisions of the law before the common courts.

XIV. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. This regulation applies to all participants of the event.
2. The regulation is effective from March 17, 2026.
3. Each participant in the event is obligated to familiarize themselves with the regulation.
4. Lack of knowledge of the competition regulation does not exempt the participant from the rules specified by the organizer in this regulation.

5. In case of non-compliance with any point of the regulation, the athlete may be denied entry to the event or disqualified during the competition or after its event.
6. Bringing intoxicants, illegal performance-enhancing substances, and alcohol to the event venue is prohibited. Athletes are prohibited from taking such substances both before and during the event, under the threat of exclusion. In the event that a athlete is found to violate this prohibition, the organizer reserves the right to deny them participation in the event or exclude them during the event.
7. The organizer provides emergency medical care on the course and at the finish line.
8. Each athlete is required to place the race number on the front, at chest height, under the penalty of disqualification.
9. The reverse side of the race number will contain a table that each athlete should fill out for easier identification in case of an accident. The table includes information about taken medications, possible allergies, and a phone number of a person the organizer should contact in case of an accident.
10. The organizer is not responsible for items lost during the event.
11. The organizer reserves the right to change the name of the event.
12. The binding and final interpretation of this regulation belongs solely to the organizer of the event. If any provision of the regulation is partially or entirely changed, all other provisions remain valid.
13. Matters not covered by the regulation are decided by the organizer based on applicable legal regulations. The above does not limit the right to legal action in the event of a dispute.
14. None of the points in the Rules exclude the organiser's responsibility that comes from the mandatory provisions of law.

XV. REGULATIONS RELATED TO FORCE MAJEURE

1. In the event of cancellation due to a pandemic or other state of threat or emergency, as well as due to factors beyond the organizer's control (so-called "force majeure"), the athlete will receive a voucher, equivalent to the paid entry fee, to be used for event held in the following year, or the participant will have the option to receive the entry fee within the timeframe specified by the organizer.
2. In the event of a change in the event date due to a pandemic or other state of threat or emergency, as well as due to factors beyond the organizer's control (so-called "force majeure"), the athlete will be transferred to the new competition date based on the agreement concluded with the organizer. The athlete will have the opportunity to apply for a refund of the entry fee within the timeframe specified by the organizer.

3. In the event of the cancellation or rescheduling of the event due to a pandemic or other state of threat or emergency, as well as due to factors beyond the organizer's control (so-called "force majeure"), money for purchased additional services will be refunded to the participant within 180 days. The purchased insurance is not subject to a refund.
4. Force majeure, within the meaning of these Regulations, encompasses all unforeseeable situations or events of an exceptional nature beyond the control of the organizer, preventing the fulfillment of any of the obligations specified in these Regulations, not resulting from the organizer's error or negligence, and remaining insurmountable despite exercising all due diligence, in particular: events of natural disasters such as floods, hurricanes, extraordinary force winds, tornadoes, earthquakes, exceptionally intense and prolonged downpours, or extraordinary and external events that could not be prevented (such as war, martial law restrictions, uprising, revolution, riots, terrorist attacks), epidemic threats, states of epidemic threat, epidemics, and states of epidemic, as well as new legal acts or decisions of administrative authorities preventing the Organizer from fulfilling its obligations. Neither the organizer nor the participants are liable for non-performance or improper performance of the provisions of these Regulations caused by force majeure.
